

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR COVER

At Adult and Teen Challenge, we are not just an organization but a beacon of hope. We exist to develop a life in Christ, offering the hope and freedom found in Him to all who seek it.

In Romans 15:13, Paul describes the God of hope as filling us with joy and peace as we trust in Him. Because of this trust in God, we would then be overflowing with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the hope we are promoting within our ministry and student body. It is a hope that is not just a concept, but a reality found in Christ's provision, provided by our Father.

Aren't you thankful that we can trust the God of hope who empowers us with the Holy Spirit, who fills us with joy and peace?

Hope in God,
P Ron

BACK COVER

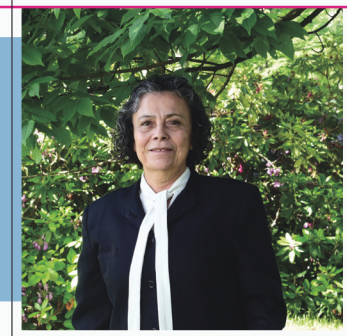

I was sentenced by the court to come to ATC. It took me a while to realize I need to really be here and that my years in the world had taken over. God was there in my time of trouble. I have now come to know I need God in my life and He does hear me. Nahum 1:7 & Micah 7:7-8

ALICIA

I was addicted to drugs and alcohol, and as a result, became caught up in prostitution. I became very weary of that life. Coming to ATC changed everything. The day I arrived I found peace! I have a wonderful relationship with Jesus. His peace in me has made all the difference.
Ephesians 6:11

MARIA

In my drug addiction I was depressed, stressed and at the end of my rope with no hope. I was looking for my next high. When I started seeking the Word and restoring my relationship with God, my life changed. Now I have a reason to look forward to a new healthy and clean God-filled life with a real future.

JEREMY

I grew up in the church and was raised knowing that keeping God in the center of my life was more important than the world. But for 30 years I kept everything in the world first, rather than Jesus. No matter what we do on our own to succeed, it cannot be done unless He is first in our life. Isaiah 43:13
